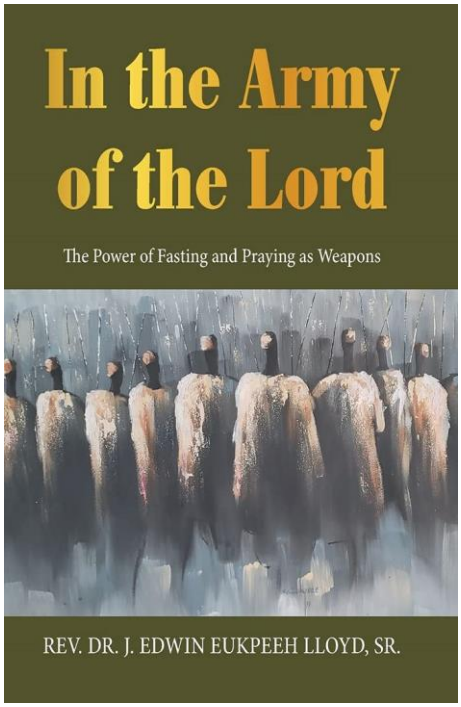
In the Army of the Lord:

The Power of Fasting and Praying as Weapons

by REV Dr J Edwin Eukpeeh Lloyd Sr (Author)



In the Army of the Lord" captures the prolific life experiences of an international humanitarian who rose from the ranks of an accomplished military officer to become a leading clergyman in a nation consumed by conflict. It sheds light on the power of prayer, fast, and faith as indispensable weapons in battling the forces of adversity in a determined quest to fulfil God's purpose. In a series of captivating narratives of his life's journey through torturous imprisonment and the bitter scourge of war, through every page, the author offers an array of glaring manifestations of divine intervention in the fulfilment of his challenging quest to carry the torch of the Lord through service to humanity.
